

Contents

Foreword	page	vii
Acknowledgements		viii
Introduction		1
Discussion		1
Preknowledge requirements		2
Objectives		2
Instructions on working through programmed text		3
Genetic symbols used in the case studies		3
Case Study 1
The red bread mould and the experiments of Beadle & Tatum		7
Case Study 2
Tasters and non-tasters, etc.		20
Case Study 3
Phenylketonuria		29
Case Study 4
Haemophilia A		40
Case Study 5
Human blood groups		49
Case Study 6
Evidence that recombination among linked genes is due to physical exchange between chromosomes; the experiments of Stern (1931)		61
Case Study 7
Sickle cell anaemia		83
Case Study 8
Industrial melanism		100
Case Study 9
Wheat		118
Case Study 10
Genius, intelligence and race		130
Postscript		150
Self-assessment questions		152
Glossary		170
Recommended reading		175